MEMORANDA.

The bark Albert, which left San Francisco October 28, reports picking up a small boat the sixth day out, in Lat. 35.11, Long. 125.10, about 250 miles out from shore. The boat is such a one as would be used by pleasure parties around shore, being very frail and built of redwood. When discovered it was covered with barnacles and had probably been drifting for about two months. The fact of its floating right side up, the absence of rowlocks, oars, etc., would seem to indicate that it had drifted away from its moorings.

An Excellent Program.

Another full house at the Orpheum last night testified to the excellence of the present program. The Misses Llewellyn were in splendid voice, and have thoroughly recovered from their voyage. The ladies are the happy possessors of exquisite voices and their singing equal to anything heard in the city. The sketch of Mrs. Dreyfus and Jackson Hicard has been considerably altered and for the better. The balance of the excellent program was most satisfactorily rendered.
